

PASSTIME POETS express

What do you know, some people really do go out on the limb spending every waken hour making music!

Here's your chance to meet a few Danes doing it and diggin' it.

The Copenhagen five-piece band Passtime Poets is bursting with raw energy as the rush of the Scandinavian capital is all-present in their music.

Already being a vibrant and vigorous player on stages in and around Copenhagen, the young and ambitious band has been rocking venues and festivals for years - always vouching a powerful on-stage performance and a heart-felt song.

Now, in the process of recording their debut album, VERSATILITY, the band is settling and feeling well in their new surroundings: A new-built studio based on Islands Brygge - close to the peer at the North end of Copenhagen harbour.

Before releasing the album, the band now welcomes listeners from all over the world to get a head-start and listen to a few samples on the demo IS THERE ANYBODY OUT THERE?

The single BECAUSE TONIGHT has already been airing on Danish, German and Faroese radio – all nation-wide and with great success and utmost attention. Now, the band's latest single HOLLYWOOD is about to air on German and Danish radio as well and with great promise.

Embarking on this fantastic journey, a new official band website has been launched as well - providing our fans with news, upcoming tracks from the studio, info on live gigs - and what not!

Eager to get the break-through internationally with their new Northern sound the band is already getting excellent reviews – so have a listen and decide for yourself...

Visit the band website for further info and news:

passtimepoets.com

myspace.com/passtimepoets